

Reading and Writing Across the Curriculum

Advanced Fluent Stage: Guided Reading Levels Q-S (40) & T-V (50)

Title	Text type	Curriculum links	Key concepts
Advanced Fluent Reading Stage: Level T (50)
Animal Partnerships	Report	Science: Living things	A symbiotic relationship is a partnership between two animals of different species that spend most or all of their lives living closely together. There are different types of symbiotic relationships.
Honey Hunters	Narrative	Language Arts: Literature	The Hadza people and the honeyguide bird have a mutual relationship where both parties benefit. The characters in a narrative can change and develop throughout the story. People from different cultures can learn from each other.
Restoring Coral Reefs	Report	Science: Living things – ecosystems	Coral reefs are important ecosystems that are home to a huge range of marine animals. Coral reefs are in danger of being destroyed because of human behavior. Scientists are working on different ways to restore coral reefs.
Colorful Coral	Narrative	Language Arts: Literature	Characters can go through a range of emotions in a story. Characters can learn about themselves through difficult situations or challenges. Some marine biologists are helping to restore coral reefs.
Animals in Danger: Orangutans	Report	Science: Living things Social Studies: Geography	Human activities in industry and everyday life have had major effects on land. People are influenced by both positive and negative emotions when making decisions.
Ahmad's Journey	Narrative	Science: Living things Language Arts: English	Characters are influenced by both positive and negative factors. A character's actions and dialogue help the reader to understand the character's feelings.
Discovering the Lost World	Report	Science: Science at work Social Studies: Geography	Remote, isolated places are often untouched by people and remain in a natural, pristine state. Wildlife that is isolated develops in unique and different ways.
Exploring Galápagos	Narrative	Science: Science at work Language Arts: Literature – journal	Fictional stories are sometimes based on factual events. Characters have a certain way of speaking and acting that reflects the story's setting.
Advanced Fluent Reading Stage: Level U (50)
Leading the Way	Biographies	Social Studies: Civics – roles and responsibilities	Different leaders have different leadership styles. Many leaders face opposition and challenges. Successful leaders usually have similar personal qualities.
An Unlikely Leader	Narrative	Language Arts: Literature	Characters can change and develop throughout a narrative. The way a character reacts to challenges can reveal information about that character's personal qualities.
Living With Robots	Report	Engineering and technology	Computers and robots perform many jobs and tasks that people once had to do. People use computers, robots, and artificial intelligence (AI) at home, at work, and for fun. AI technology will continue to develop, but it is limited to the information that people program into it.
Milo and the Robots	Narrative	Language Arts: Literature	Computers, robots, and AI have changed the way people live. In the future, people will use computers, robots, and AI more and more. Computers, robots, and AI are helpful, but not all people regard them as essential.
Fighting For Children's Rights: The Story of Lewis Hine	Biography	Social Studies: History Language Arts: Literature – biography	Child labor was once common in the United States and children were often exploited. Lewis Hine used his photographs to help change child labor laws and protect children's rights.
A Dollar a Day	Narrative	Social Studies: History Language Arts: Literature – historical fiction	Some events can change a character's life. A character's development can be shown by how they respond to particular events.
The Camera Doesn't Lie!	Interview	Technology	Photography has changed since the introduction of digital technology. Photographers use a range of techniques that allow them to take the "perfect" photo.
The Scoop	Narrative	Technology Language Arts: Literature	Characters develop as events in the story occur. The actions, thoughts, and words of a character indicate what their personality is like.

Reading and Writing Across the Curriculum

Advanced Fluent Stage: Guided Reading Levels Q-S (40) & T-V (50)

Title	Text type	Curriculum links	Key concepts
Advanced Fluent Reading Stage: Level V (50)
Privacy and the Internet	Report	Engineering and technology	The meaning of “privacy” has changed with the development of technology. Once information is uploaded to the Internet it is no longer private. There is a balance between privacy and safety when considering what information should be made public.
Tagged!	Narrative	Language Arts: Literature	Being tagged or tagging someone online has consequences. Characters can experience a range of emotions throughout a story.
Back from Extinction	Report	Science: Living things	De-extinction is the science of bringing plants and animals back from extinction. There are lots of necessary factors in the success of de-extinction. There are a number of moral issues surrounding de-extinction.
The Return of the Woolly Mammoth	Narrative	Language Arts: Literature	A narrative can be set in a variety of places and times. Characters can have different views on an issue, and these can be related to their experiences and culture.
Living in Harsh Environments	Report	Social Studies: Geography	Living in extreme climates can be fatal for people if they are not prepared. Some people have adapted to extreme temperatures but most of us need modern technology to live comfortably in these places.
Into the Desert	Narrative	Social Studies: Geography Language Arts: Literature	Narratives can include characters’ reflections and memories about events in their lives. A character’s personality can be tested when they’re faced with a dramatic event.
The Mystery of the Pyramids	Report	Social Studies: History Engineering: Design	Pyramids are huge structures that were built in Egypt in ancient times. There are different theories about how and why the pyramids were built, and who actually built them.
King For a Week	Narrative	Engineering: Design Language Arts: Literature – historical fiction	Narratives can include historical facts related to the setting of the story. A character’s words, thoughts, and actions reflect the time and place in which the story is set.